all report of the interview with Samuel Wi keson concerning his suit against Henry Ward Beccher, about which the telegraph has given some bits of information. Mr. Wilkeson gives it away, so to speak, that his friendly services to Beecher in the Tilton affair were influenced somewhat by sordid motives. He has now such old friend has bankrupted him and financially, ruined the publishing house of J. B. Furd & Co. It appears; that before the scandal get Abroad Wilkesoff and J. B. This fin-ally bankrupted Ford & Co. Wilkeson bought up their claims against Beccher and began suit for damages, which will come up in the York courts this month. Wilkeson thinks Beecher a great man, but one who was organized without a conscience, an opinion which many have entertained for several years. If we recollect aright it was Mr. Wilkeson will said: "The scandal trial would knock the Life of Christ higher than a kite, and it seems now the publishers went up with it. Some of these days perhaps the veloran journalist will get indignant enough to give his reserved opin-jon on the Beecher-Tillon affair and it will be interesting.

It should be stated for information of readers here that the ruit of Henry Villard against Frederick Billings, mentioned in our dispatches of yesterday, was not the injunction sait which has for sometime been pending to restrain the issue of the eighteen millions stock, but a fresh saif connected by Mr. Villard in the U.S. eigenit court to compel the North Pacine company to faccount to the pre-lexted stockholders for caraings spent, contenferred stackholders for cardings spart, contractly to the companization plane.
